Ninth Circular: 7th LatinMag Biennial Meeting (2023)

1) Extension of the final deadline for submission of extended abstracts

The Latin American Association of Paleomagnetism and Geomagnetism (LatinMag) announces that the submission of extended abstracts will be extended until October 16, 2023 (Monday).

2) New guidelines on accommodation and transportation in Rio de Janeiro

The Local Organizing Committee has recently provided more information and guidance on accommodation and transportation through the website <https://www.latinmag2023-rj.com/housing/>

We will soon release more information about the bus routes that serve the area around the National Observatory.
